

Carménère

COUNTRY Chile
 REGION Central Valley
 GRAPES CARMENERE
 NOTABLE

$$$$$

PRODUCER OVERVIEW

Terra Andina wines are inspired by the vibrancy of South America. At its core, Terra Andina is free-spirited by nature, exuding the best qualities of South America: relentlessly energetic, inherently open-minded, and undeniably social. Terra Andina wines are meant to be enjoyed, and above all shared with friends, enriching any occasion.

DESCRIPTION

Terra Andina wines are inspired by the vibrancy of South America. At its core, Terra Andina is free-spirited, exuding the best qualities of South America: relentlessly energetic, inherently open-minded, and undeniably social. Terra Andina's Chief Winemaker, Eduardo Alemparte, has traveled throughout South America, experiencing first-hand how each regions wine style is interwoven with the fabric of its culture. He has drawn inspiration from the diversity of valleys, varieties and people in the aim to create the best wines that fully reflect the South American vibe.

VINIFICATION

20% of the wine is aged in oak barrels for 8 months.

PALATE

This Carménère is scandalous and scandalously delicious. Once confused for another variety, this "lost grape of Bordeaux" has been rediscovered and adapted as Chile's signature grape. Has notes of plums, berries, and cedar & spice.

ANALYSIS

Alcohol: 13.9 TA: 3.41 g/l pH: 3.67 RS: 10 g/l

BOTTLE SIZE

750 ml

SERVING SUGGESTIONS

Goes great with anything off the grill and dishes with some spice. Perfect for a dinner party or just hanging out with friends.

