More About This Producer

Domaine du Tracot has been owned by the Dubost family since 1902. Its origin was found in writings and traces on the main building.

With his two sons, Corentin and Joffrey, Jean-Paul hopes that the 4th generation will continue the family tradition in providing wines that reflect their terrior, the culture of the vineyard and respecting the environment and soil.

The specialty here is their Brouilly, which comes from 75 year old vines, but their Beaujolais-Villages is also exceptional. These are surprisingly rich wines that reflect both Dubost's devotion to Gamay and also to quality.
