Mosketto and top-class Moscato from Asti have much in common: they are made from the same grape variety, from grapes that come from the same region and they are processed in the same way. Mosketto's fizz, refreshing sweetness, balanced taste and low alcohol make it a smart, high-quality alternative to internationally acclaimed

Moscato. Same grape, same taste, more fun. The grapes for our Mosketto are grown and turned into wine in Piedmont, Italy's top wine region. The vineyards slopes of the gentle hills at the foot of the mighty Alps.
