HISTORY For centuries man has taken naturally grown grapes from the rich and fertile soils and created wines in natural ways handed down over generations. Today Art of Earth wines are still created in the same way – from carefully selected organic grapes, harvested in traditional ways and then turned into organic wines with centuries-old natural winemaking methods. The love and passion with which this is done, produces unique, gentle wines bursting with natural flavors – true pieces of art from mother earth.

TASTING NOTES & FOOD PAIRINGS This fresh Rosé from France is characterized by fruit forward aromas of strawberry and raspberry. It is light yet aromatic and perfectly balances its refreshing acidity with a delicate fruit sweetness.
